Unused restaurant minimums will be billed to the Membership account.

MEMBERSHIP INITIATIVE

Our club has experienced tremendous growth and improvement over the past year. Our Clubhouse delivers fantastic food, a warm atmosphere, and a schedule of events that piqued our members' interest. The golf course has returned to its proper form. We feel that there is no better time to welcome new members to our club; however, we don't want them to take our word for it. Now is the time to come and experience it!

Significant Other Policy:

Privileges to use the golf and house facilities are extended to an individual nominated by a Member to be a "significant other" of the Member, conditioned upon the qualification set forth below. The payment of the annual fee as hereafter provided. To qualify, the Member and "significant other" must both be unmarried. The Member may only designate one "significant other" per fiscal year. All purchases made and charges incurred by the "significant other" shall be the sole responsibility of the Member. Unless the children of the "significant other" cohabit with the Member, neither they nor relatives of the "significant other" shall have independent rights to use the golf or house facilities, but may be treated as "guests" of the Member subject to limitations specified in the By-Laws and House Rules.

Reinstatement Policy:

Resigned Members within the previous 12 months can apply for reinstatement and, upon approval, may be reinstated at the level of Membership they held upon resignation. Consistent with our policy, they will, however, be obligated to pay back dues for the months they were resigned.

Member References:

Please provide two references to be reviewed by the Membership Committee and Board of Governors. The references are to be listed on your Membership Nomination Profile (member application form).
